TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1863

NEWS FROM MEN OZA.

SPLENDID COUP D'ETAT.

MODEL LEGISLATION.

THE Governor of Mendoza has often come for a share of the rebukes which we thought it our duty, from time to time, to direct to such public officials as the Juez de Paz of Guardia Monte, the Chief of Police, and Minister of Government of Buenos Ayres. We regret, however, having placed Gov. Molina in the same category with the rest, for the poor man is evidently crazy, and will appear from the following statements, of the "Diario".

On the 2nd ult. a law was passed by the Chambers and signed by Molina, decreeing sentence of death against all parties guilty of larceny in which the object stolen should be worth 25 dollars. Even if the criminal should have robbed only the value of 12 dollars, from an inclosed place, he must also be shot, as well as all persons who knowingly receive such stolen property. This law is to be valid for 12 months, during which time God knows how many may fall victims to this lunatic Draco of the Cordillera.

The Chambers not being sufficiently pliant to his caprices, he adopted Cromwell's method: a company of the 1st battalion under their colonel officers occupied the outlets and galleries of the Hall, in presence of the Provincial Minister. Presently a terrible scene ensued, and, amid cries of Muera! several of the members attempted to escape but were forced back by the soldiery to witness their degradation by an armed dissolution. Meantime some houses were sacked and the inmates left for dead, within 5 squares of the Police. As in the Guardia Monte murder, a reward was offered for the discovery of the assassins but none were arrested. The gang of ruffians was 15 in number, all armed with swords. The residences of the Barraqueros, Lima, Orozco, and Real families were of those sacked, and Dr. Reta and his family, it is hoped, will recover from their wounds. The miscreants are well-known, but the reign of terror is so general that all are afraid to denounce them. Molina is said to have boastingly remarked over Reta's mutilated remains "the opposition ists have not calculated the consequences."

Those who applaud such lawless violence as the arrest of M. Fourcaud at Mendoza, the imprisonment by Orono of the editor of the Diario, the seizure of unfortunate women by our Chief of Police, the dragging to prison of the Northern Railway contractor &c. &c. may see from the above picture into what excesses public officers will rush, when unrestrained by a respect for the liberty of the subject and a wholesome dread of public condemnation.

IMPORTANT FROM THE URUGUAY.

The province of E. Rios is threatened with a repetition of the Santa Fé farce, invalidating sales of public land. The Litoral copies a law dated Aug. 25, 1820 whereby a scale of stamps is laid down, and land-sales registered on the scale as provinces dictated are about to be declared null. Each of the provinces may soon find out similar pleas for confiscation.

Rain has fallen plentifully. The dogs are a great nuisance in Gualeguaichu. A new church is about to be erected there. The Alto Uruguay is now occupied by small vessels (chalanas) which convey the produces of the interior to S. Borja; 2 cargoes of Yerba brought from Nonohay to Itaqui fetched 3 $ per arroba. The plans of Mr. Williams of Salto, by Messrs. Oliden, Nin & Cabal, for curing beef, have been submitted by order of the Imperial Government to the Brazilian Consul at Port Alegre, with the view of purchasing the patents, for the benefit of the provinces of that Empire. Dr Victorica has resigned his post of Deputy. Dr. Funes is named Judge at Paraná.

Great complaints are made, touching the post office of Gualeguaichu; there being no post master there, for sake of economy. Mr. Posadas and our President should see to this. Elections are about to take place, for a Deputy to Congress in room of the outgoing member Sr Del Rio.

All treasury-notes presented at the provincial mint are amortized. The scientific members of Admiral Pinzon's expedition were received at Concepcion by a band of music; they afterwards proceeded to the saladero of Sta Candida to visit Gen. Urquiza.

LATEST FROM THE INTERIOR.

Rioja is still disturbed about the election for Prov. Deputies. One of the parties dispersed through the city plundering all before them. About 1000 men set out to attack Villa Argentina which is undefended. Gen. Peñaloza said to be implicated, but we rather believe him a friend of public order. Catamarca is very quiet under Gov. Correa. D. Octaviano Navarro had returned after a long banishment. "The Ecos de Cordoba" states the Anglo-Argentine has lighted the Cabildo of that city with Kerosene. The number of poor was greatly increased.

The houses of Baldana, Galarza, & Castelvi have been broken into and robbed, but the Police have made no arrests. Col. Baigorria has accepted the military command of Rio 3.° and Rio 4.° D. Mariano Fragueiro has also accepted his election as Senator to Congress. Col. Gonzalez announces a victory over the Indians at Toldos de Mariano, capturing 130 horses.

San Luis will soon boast a newspaper, el Porvenir. The editor is D. Manuelo Gutierrez, who, like our Tribuna friend, is a government official, having been named Assessor. From San Juan, we learn that Rodriguez, a friend of Sarmiento, has been elected to 6 months imprisonment &forced to give up some property stolen during the late troubles. Gov. Sarmiento has published a letter from the former Argentine minister to Orleans Balcarce, stating that this republic would forward him some articles for the London Exhibition.

The Litoral of Paraná mentions a new French school opened in that city. D. Placido Lopez has been named Collector of Taxes in Paraná. The steamer Rosas arrived at Paraná: Col. Ibarra set out for S. José. Capt. Crispulo was murdered at Quebracho on the 11th inst: the body, being brought into town, showed seven stabs, besides marks of Bolas: One Gaviño is arrested, charged with the crime.

JOINT STOCK COMPANIES

In most countries, joint stock Companies are popular, well paying and of the greatest utility, but unhappily in Buenos Aires they have proved exactly the reverse. Our city abounds with Companies enjoying exclusive privileges, if not monopolies, not one of which have ever paid, or probably for a dividend. Shareholders who subscribed for the stock at par, besides losing the interest on their money, have to suffer a fearful discount, if they wish to realize, and in some cases the shares are not worth the paper they are printed on.—We could understand all this, if there was a general depreciation of property, or a diminution of trade; but it is not so. On the contrary the site upon which a joint stock mill or R R station house is built, has within the last few years doubled in value; bricks and mortar are as dear if not dearer, labor is as plentiful and trade and population of the place is steadily increasing.

In the Plaza Once de Setiembre, do we not behold splendid mill property and distilleries lying waste and idle, and positively falling to decay?

In the country districts how many joint stock sheep farming Companies have not been established, which, in a short period were obliged to be wound up with frightful loss to the unfortunate shareholders?

Have we not recently beheld the Gov. obliged to come forward and, in order to rescue from Insolvency a joint stock R. R. Company, which is doing a splendid passenger and goods traffic, to buy up the shares at par paying the stockholders half the current interest, and this although it is an admitted fact that the property of the Company is worth considerably more than the amount of shares issued their money.—Have we not a joint stock Gas Co, enjoying a monopoly, charging 150000 people double prices for gas, and fabulous sums for Lamps, and yet this Gas Co. has been since its formation struggling. What dividend has this Company ever paid? What premium do we see the shares command?

Painful as is the conclusion, it must be admitted that if there is any Police in this City to try against joint stock Companies these societies themselves are to blame. With all these facts before us, it affords us sincere gratification to call public attention to the resolution of 12 ovej, declared by the Bolsa or Stock Exchange Company, in proof of our assertion that the misfortunes of joint-stock Companies are solely attributable to their own mismanagement.

The Bolsa Company is one of our most unpretending societies; its Capital is small and its receipts limited; yet, owing to the able management of its talented and highly esteemed President Mr. C. Santa Maria, who, we regret to say, now goes out of office. The affairs of the Company are in a most prosperous condition, the stockholders in receipt of a handsome dividend on shares and the shares commanding a good premium. Without any desire to make invidious comparisons, we must say that had we a chairman or Pres. of the Western Railway Co. as zealous, energetic and efficient as Mr Santa Maria, it would now, in all human probability, be able to buy up the Government interest, instead of being compelled to sell out at a loss.

A joint stock Companies will pay here, as well as anywhere else, if we go but the proper way to work; but if men are appointed to manage Companies who possess no qualifications are bundles of paper money and private interest and disregarding the interest of the stock holders, expensive establishments are kept up, and the state of the Company's affairs purposely kept private from the public, it is not to be wondered at that merchants and others refuse to invest their money in such concerns, and Buenos Ayrean Joint Stock companies become a by-word amongst us all.

The system of changing yearly the officers of a company, although much approved of, is not without its evils. Men who manage a Company well should on no account be removed. We mention this because we learn that, according to the byelaws of some companies, such is the rule.—It may be all very well in politics to dequalify a man who has governed 4 or 5 years for re-election, but in the domestic arrangement of a commercial company it requires at least a year before one gets thoroughly acquainted with the working of the business, is, therefore, absurd to expect that any company will be well or ably managed under such constant change of officers. Incompetent and inexperienced men will inevitably be elected to the vacant chair, the affairs of the company get into disorder, the receipts diminish, expenses increase, shares depreciate, and dividends (if any) less than the current rate of interest. We therefore feel bound to deprecate this system: all officers of a company should hold office during good conduct; no compulsory removal should be sanctioned or tolerated.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

It is most erroneous to suppose that only in Ireland threatening notices are served. Buenos Ayres they are also coming in vogue. Mr Finance Minister Domingu z, though not a Tipperary man, has resorted to a means, which may keep foreign Banks from coming into this country. We sympathize with the gentleman in question, and regret sincerely that the talented manager of the River Plate Bank should have been so unfortunate as to mend the Minister's displeasure. Without even the semblance of a right, this public officer endeavours to intrude his authority. The city of Buenos Ayres is, we believe, federalised, and only in the River Plate Bank should think proper to start branches in the country, we apprehend, has our esteemed friend the Minister a right to interfere. Mr Green laid his statutes before the National Government and got its approval: moreover, he filed them in the office of the Tribunal of Commerce. If, now, he is obliged to get the assent of the provincial government of B. Ayres, to open branches in this City, it is clear he must also get the permission of all the other provincial governments of the republic. Under these circumstances, we would advise the manager to return the Bank to England, and thus escape the annoyance of having with such a multiplicity of free and enlightened republics. The Nacion Argentina thinks it is a fit subject for our new Federal Courts, but we, more candidly speaking, we think the matter could be more amicably arranged over a bottle of port, or in the back parlour of the bank in calle Piedad.

We regret to be obliged to again call public attention to the gross negligence of the municipality. Citizen's lives are not worth 5 minutes purchase in this city. On Sunday last, another child was swallowed up by the falling in of a decayed water-closet By the greatest luck, a second man did not meet the same fate. Of course, people will suppose that such an accident would never occur in some out-of-the-way place about town. But what will be said of the vigilence of our city fathers, when we inform our readers that this unhappy accident occurred in the most public part of town—in the very market, where hundreds of people are going and coming each day. If this happened in England, France, or the United States, the party, through whose negligence such an accident occurred, would be convicted of manslaughter, and punished accordingly. Public safety demands that an inquiry be made into the matter. The unfortunate man who met with such an instant death has left a wife and widow and eight children. The mind recoils at the misery and affliction which is thus brought home to this poor family by such gross neglect. We caution the public against entering any of these hideous man-traps. We have talked and written until we are tired. The municipality pay not the slightest attention to what we say. Uncharitable though it may seem, we cannot conceal the fact, that had one of these municipal city fathers been the victim, instead of this poor struggling quiteros, we would have less cause for regret.

Notwithstanding a communication we have received from a subscriber, we will not change our opinion of the post master General of the Republic: he is decidedly a go ahead man, and although we may be unable to excuse his ministerial style to a lot of Provincial postmasters, still this is a small fault in a good child. Sr. Posadas has been in Europe, and knows the utility of "on the Majesty's service" on the back of a letter; he has to contend with a lot of slow-coaches here, and a critical public who wish to find fault with every thing they see in the shape of reform. We regard his last regulation as most necessary. A great deal of trouble will be saved by attending to his regulations. The postal arrangements were in a standing state, till he took them in hand. There is no doubt still much room for improvement.

Mr P.'s head-quarters are too much out of the way, and we wonder that the Portenos themselves don't see how much better it would be to have the post-office in the Plaza, instead of a dirty, repugnant, city prison. We always wish to keep on good terms with our neighbours; Mr. Posadas is we besides a friend. We therefore incline to make room in the STANDARD for a nonsensical attack on our postmaster for saying 'God bless' you to the post House masters, on the contrary, we avail ourselves of Mr. P.'s generosity and say God bless you Posadas and move your Post office into better quarters.

BOLSA.

Yesterday at two o'clock the general meeting took place and the three proposals of amendments to the regulations tendered by the Chamber were accepted. The report was not read as it was published and circulated freely for the last few days.

The candidates of the present number obtained a good majority which we think will be approved of by the merchants in town and ourselves also.

The following gentlemen are elected to compose the new chamber.

Messrs. Mariano Casares, George Drabble, Agustin Storp, Pablo Nouguier, Francisco Moreno, Felix Pico, Benjamin Lea, Charles Baker, Octavio Rossi.

Substitutes Mess. Edward Zimmerman, Luis Piaggio, Augustus Drago and William Dowdale.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Buenos Aires Jan 19th 1863.

I hereby certify that I have this day called on Francis Parish Esq. for Britannic Majesty's Consul at Buenos Aires in presence of John Geoghegan Esq. Proprietor of the Victoria Hotel to request a passage for myself and family to Europe in the distressed British Subject, from him and receiving a refusal from said Francis Parish Esq. H. B. M's Consul I have no other alternative than to throw myself on the charitable protection of the Argentine Republic or on my own countrymen, the Irish population in the above mentioned Republic.

Michael Tonnère M. R. C. S. I. Member the Parisian Society, ex-clevé benevole at Hotel Dieu, Paris; late staff assistant surgeon, British army

O'CONNELL STATUE.

To the Editor.—Sir,—I enclose you $100. as my subscription towards the O'Connell Statue, about to be erected in Dublin. I hope there will be found a few of my fellow-countrymen who will follow my example.—Yours, &c,

JOHN KEHOE,

Partido San Pedro.

FOREIGN MISCELLANEA.

—It is said that a deputation of Greeks have pounded GARIBALDI to his acceptance of the crown of Greece.

The London wool sales, on Saturday, did not present any new features. The biddings were kept up with fair spirit, but previous rates had not been exceeded.

News from Norfolk states that the work of raising the United States vessels sunk in Norfolk harbour were progressing favourably. The frigate United States had been raised, pumped out, and towed to the Gosport Navy Yard.

THE VANDERBILT AND THE ALABAMA.—This steamer, formerly of the Bremen, Southampton, and New York line, has been dispatched from the latter port to capture the Alabama. This vessel is 340 feet long, 49 feet beam, 33 feet depth of hold, and 2268 tons.

Her horse-power is 2,500. All her upper works on the main deck have been cut away, leaving her deck flush from stem to stern. She carries twelve nine-inch Dahlgren guns, six on a side, and two 100 pound Parrott guns, one forward and the other aft. Being solid for fifty feet from the bow, she is considered able to act as a ram. Her commander is named Baldwing.

From Maracaibo we have advices to the 23 Oct. The revolution continued. The town and bar were being strongly fortified. A fleet of five schooners and a number of smaller craft were about the harbour. The Government of Caracas had five war schooners outside the bar blockading.

Quebin China had scarcely been taken possession of by the French, when it is traversed by electric lines. One is at work regularly from Seque to Ton-Koon, and another to Tay-Ninh. Letters state that as soon as the dry season is over, other lines are to be established between the principal towns.

At New York, Albert Hoe, convicted of flitting out a steamer in a day, was arraigned for sentence on the 15th, Judge Shipman said the crimes for which the prisoner was to suffer required calm deliberation, and was not a crime of temptation The sentence of the court would be imprisonment for five years.

THIRTEEN PRINCES OF WALES. He is the thirteenth English Prince of Wales who came of age this year on Sunday, the 9th of November. Of his predecessors, only four held the title when they came of age, and he is only the third such coming of ages known to English history. Of the four who thus came of age as Princes of Wales, three came to the throne. Four of the Princes married, and of these only one made a Princess of Wales a Queen.—Court Journal.

THE GREAT EASTERN'—At a meeting of the Great Ship Company, held on Friday, it was stated that, if £1750 was not immediately provided, the ship must pass into other hands. It would require £5 000 to bring her home. The report proposed the issue of 20,000 on a mortgage debt, bearing 10 per cent. to be paid off in ten years. The ship had earned £45,000 in 111 days, and in a short time longer would have earned 2 0'000 more Mr. Scott Russell censured the general management. The proposal was adopted.

THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT AND THE MORNING CHRONICLE.—Mr. Serjeant Glover, formerly proprietor of the Morning Chronicle, has brought an action against Mr. de Persigny and Mr. Billault in the Court of Queen's Bench. He claims no less than £14,000 for publishing certain articles in the Chronicle and other papers, and writing other articles in English, to be translated into the Moniteur and other French papers. The contract is alleged to have been in the form of a promised salary of £300 a-month. Mr. Billault peremptorily denies by affidavit that he ever made any such contract at all; but the judge, without passing any opinion on the merits of the case, held that the law permitted him to send the case to a jury.

—The Madrid journals of the 1st inst. mention great distress as prevailing in Catalonia in consequence of the dismissal of workmen from the cotton manufactories caused by the want of raw material. Subscriptions have been opened to provide work for the men.

The Roman letter of the Times says:—"Just between the months of November, 1859, and the end of October 1860, a period of three years, the collection of Peter's Pence has added to the resources of the Pope the sum of 6,150,000 crowns—that is, more than 1700,000 Roman crowns, upwards 360,000 a year. The annual deficit of the Pontifical finances is five million of crowns; Peter's Pence reduces it to 2,300,000 crowns. Notwithstanding that deficit, says the letter, the Government needs the expenses of the public service, and has at this moment a sum of one million crowns in the Treasury."

RECONCILIATION OF IRISH FACTIONS.—A remarkable scene was witnessed at Emly, in Tipperary, on Sunday last. It appears that for some years past the people of that district have been divided into two hostile factions—the Three-year-olds and the Four-year-olds—and that the war between the two parties has been carried on with savage ferocity. The Roman Catholic Archbishop recently called attention to this fearful state of things, and sent a body of Redemptorist Fathers on a special mission to the district. It would seem that the efforts of the rev. gentlemen to heal up the breach between the faction have been attended with success, and on Sunday last the Three-year-olds and Four-year-olds attended at the chapel at Emly, and, in the presence of the Archbishop, made a solemn treaty to live in peace wit ones another.

LOCAL EVENTS.

O'CONNELL STATUE.—We have to acknowledge the receipt of $ 100 nge from Mr. John Kehoe, Arrecifa for the national monument to be erected in Sackville St. Dublin, to the Liberator of Ireland: by last packet we transmitted /1 the contribution of Mr. M. G. Mullan to the same testimonia of Irish gratitude.

THE PRESIDENT is residing at present outside in San Isidro, on account of his health.

GENERAL PAUNERO has arrived from the interior, after a campaign of a year and a-half. He was at the Circus on Sunday night, and looks very much older than formerly—we suppose on account of the long white beard he wears.

LAST YEAR, about this time, the population of Buenos Aires was given up to rejoicing, on the occasion of the arrival of the National Guards and other troops from Pavon.

MONTEVIDEO—It appears that the Italian Government are going to send a squadron to demand reparation for alleged insult to an officer of the Italian man-of-war Aquila.

The ecclesiastical question is not yet terminated.

CIRCUS.—Our American friends had a good house on Sunday night we regret to state they are going to leave for Mvideo on the first prox. All who have not yet seen Hiram, Wildfire, and Master's ass should avail themselves of so pleasurable an interval, before their departure.

DR. GABRIEL PEREZ.—Oriental Consul at Rio Janeiro for many years, and grand master of several masonic lodges, has arrived in our city, en route for the Uruguay from ,where he ill return thortly back again to Brazil.

WOOL.—We have received some fine samples of wool from the establishment Santa Catalina, in the Lomas de Zamora, the property of Mr. Patrick Bookey.

Any parties desirous of inspecting them can see them in this office.

SUPPLEMENT.—Those who had expected by this mail arrived, but owing to some misunderstanding were stipped as cargue hence we have been unable to give them to our subscribers to town.

Now it is too late,but we shall send them to our camp subscribers to whom they will always be acceptable.

We hope that a similar accident will not happen next packet.

COINCIDENCE.—Patria de Argentines will remark that on the same day, this paper and the Nacion Argentina, contain some hints for Dr. Alsina, touching the abolition or restriction of open registry, each of which is described by the respective editors "as a focus of disorder and receptacle of stolen property," the article almost even translations, you neither of w knew of the other's ideas, but both were animated with the desire to improve the state of our Province.
